

2017 FICM ANNUAL MEETING

Hard Cases or Bad Laws?

A day of debate around contentious ethical aspects of ICM practice

Wednesday 24th May 2017
Royal College of Anaesthetists, London

9:00am	REGISTRATION
9:30am	Welcome Dr Carl Waldmann, Faculty Dean
Session 1	CHAIR: Dr Alison Pittard
9:45am	There is nothing left to discuss: a Coroner's view on whether ICM has fixed the legal and ethical problems we used to have Mr Christopher Dorries OBE, HM Coroner for South Yorkshire West District
10:15am	When lawyers become involved in ICU care Mr Ben Troke, Partner, Browne Jacobson LLP
10:45am	Did the theory reflect the practice? Caring for a patient when the Court of Protection is involved Dr Chris Danbury, Consultant in Critical Care & Anaesthesia
11:15am	REFRESHMENTS
Session 2	CHAIR: Dr Carl Waldmann
11:30am	Supervision: who is responsible? Dr Rehana Iqbal, Consultant in Anaesthesia & Lecturer in Medical Ethics & Law
12:00pm	Donation practices can be unethical Dr Andrew Bodenham, Consultant in Anaesthesia & Critical Care
12:30pm	Faculty Update
1:00pm	LUNCH
Session 3	CHAIR: Dr Daniele Bryden
2:00pm	Can ICU care be uneconomic? Professor Rachel Elliot, Professor of Health Economics
2:30pm	Can ICU care be futile? Dr Rosaleen Baruah, Consultant in Critical Care & Anaesthesia
3:00pm	Can we justify using ICU care to manage the end of life? Baroness Illora Finlay, Professor of Palliative Care
3:30pm	Panel Discussion: How not to get sued! Dr Andrew Bodenham & Dr Andrew Cohen
4:00pm	CLOSE