

2017 FICM ANNUAL MEETING

Hard Cases or Bad Laws?

A day of debate around contentious ethical aspects of ICM practice

Wednesday 24th May 2017

Royal College of Anaesthetists, London

- 9:00am REGISTRATION
- 9:30am Welcome
Dr Carl Waldmann, Faculty Dean
- Session 1 CHAIR: Dr Alison Pittard
- 9:45am There is nothing left to discuss: a Coroner's view on whether ICM has fixed the legal and ethical problems we used to have
Mr Christopher Dorries OBE, HM Coroner for South Yorkshire West District
- 10:15am When lawyers become involved in ICU care
Mr Ben Troke, Partner, Browne Jacobson LLP
- 10:45am Did the theory reflect the practice? Caring for a patient when the Court of Protection is involved
Dr Chris Danbury, Consultant in Critical Care & Anaesthesia
- 11:15am REFRESHMENTS
- Session 2 CHAIR: Dr Carl Waldmann
- 11:30am Supervision: who is responsible?
Dr Rehana Iqbal, Consultant in Anaesthesia & Lecturer in Medical Ethics & Law
- 12:00pm Donation practices can be unethical
Dr Andrew Bodenham, Consultant in Anaesthesia & Critical Care
- 12:30pm Faculty Update
- 1:00pm LUNCH
- Session 3 CHAIR: Dr Daniele Bryden
- 2:00pm Can ICU care be uneconomic?
Professor Rachel Elliot, Professor of Health Economics
- 2:30pm Can ICU care be futile?
Dr Rosaleen Baruah, Consultant in Critical Care & Anaesthesia
- 3:00pm Can we justify using ICU care to manage the end of life?
Baroness Illora Finlay, Professor of Palliative Care
- 3:30pm Panel Discussion: How not to get sued!
Dr Andrew Bodenham & Dr Andrew Cohen
- 4:00pm CLOSE